

Jody Shakespeare

The Tapped Truck

Jody Shakespeare, founder & CEO of Tapped Events, is a highly driven account executive and recruitment professional who loves human connection and beer. With experience such as business development managing with Experis, and corporate recruiting for ATCO Structures & Logistics, Jody brings passion for community building, craft beer and business magic.

Jody founded Tapped Events with the goal of making the beer experience both approachable and memorable with their fleet of mobile bars. This growing business is a must at any event in the Shuswap.
